CASE NO. CR07-133 RSL

DETENTION ORDER

Offense charged:

Possession of Cocaine with Intent to Distribute, in violation of Title 21, U.S.C., Sections 841(a)(1), 841(b)(1)(C), and Title 18, U.S.C., Section 2.

Date of Detention Hearing: April 9, 2007

The Court, having conducted a uncontested detention hearing pursuant to Title 18
U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which the defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of any other person and the community. The Government was represented by Adam Cornell. The defendant was represented by Carol Koller.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

(1) There is probable cause to believe the defendant committed the drug offense. The maximum penalty is in excess of ten years. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against the defendant's release based upon both dangerousness and flight risk, under Title 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).

(2) Defendant is a citizen of Mexico who has been previously deported. The Bureau of Immigration has filed a detainer against him.

(3) There is an active warrant against Defendant for Failure to Appear on a Dangerous Drug Violation.

(4) The defendant does not contest detention at this time.

Based upon the foregoing information, which is consistent with the recommendation of detention by U.S. Pre-trial Services, it appears that there is no condition or combination of conditions that would reasonably assure future Court appearances and/or the safety of other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

(1) The defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

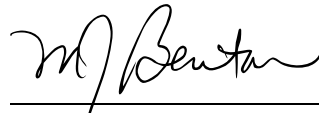

(2) The defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;

(3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and

- (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 11th day of April, 2007.
